SAFEGUARDING

Oxford Science Studies is fully committed to safeguarding and protecting children, young people and adults, equality and diversity, and there will be a rigorous selection process. Therefore, all staff must fully assist in helping Oxford Science Studies to complete their tutor file. To do so, if asked to attend an interview, we will need you to bring in the following documents, all of which must be the originals:

- Copies of your qualifications
- Your DBS or the supporting documentation in order to apply on your behalf
- Sight of your original Passport or any other ID documents (and visa if applicable)
- Name and contact number of your next of kin

REFERENCES

By completing the next two boxes, you agree to us contacting them for a reference. The first MUST be from your current/most recent employer. If this is your first job application since completing full-time education, one referee must be your school teacher or tertiary education tutor.

References from friends and relatives will not be accepted. If you have worked with children (either in a paid or a voluntary basis) those employers will be asked about any disciplinary offences relating to children or if you were the subject of any child protection concerns.
